FRANK ROSCHOLLAR BORNE TO REST

FUNERAL SERVICES CONDUCTED
OVER BODY OF VICTIM OF
FLASH OF LIGHTNING

The regular services attending the tragic death of Frank C. Roschollar, son of Mrs. D. C. Ryckman, took place yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian church. The great sympathy and sincere love of friends for the noble and bereaved mother was shown by the large attendance and the floral offerings of great beauty. The casket was embowered in bud and blossom. Beautiful roses, brilliant tulips, fragrant carnations of the pink of dawn, wide-eyed daisies, lilies, sweet and white in their purity, amid feathery green, all nestled lovingly over the last sleep of the youth so suddenly snatched from life and a mother's heart.

Rev. R. W. Bayless conducted the funeral ceremonies. After first read-

OVER A VALUABLE PROPERTY
IN COTTONWOOD

A. S. Ross, president of the Tonopah Cash Boy, is here from Salt Lake City on a brief visit. Mr. Ross is greatly pleased with the showing and commends the management of the property by Mr. Ed Meade. He says that the lowering of the water in the Victor will drain the Cash Boy so that it will be possible to resume development work at greater depth. He looks for excellent developments within a week.

Yesterday Mr. Ross was in receipt of a telegram which greatly pleased him. It was notification that he had secured all the outstanding stock in the West Toledo Mines company in the awakened district of Cottonwood, near Salt Lake City. #### OFFICERS CHOSEN BY ST. MARK'S CHURCH

DISCOURSE ON THE BIBLE DE-LIVERED BY PASTOR AT MORNING SERVICE

The congregation and friends of St. Mark's Episcopal church who availed themselves of the opportunity to attend the service last evening, were regaled with a sermon by the rector of special interest, the text selected being from the Gospel according to St. Luke, 1st chap., 7th verse; also from the 2nd Epistle of St. Peter, 1st chap., 21st verse. The illustrations drawn from, and the deductions made by the pastor, dwelt with the inestimable value of the bible in comparison with all other literature given to the world. Some of the principal excerpts from the discourse were as follows:

"The bible is the most popular book in the world today. It has been the patriot's book for ages. It is the

FIGHTERS IN PINK OF CONDI-
TION AND A BIG CROWD
EXPECTED

Johnnie Sudenberg and Johnnie Connelly came over from Goldfield yesterday, and together with Kid Ross and Jack Bratton will be at the weigh-in this afternoon at the Coliseum. It could easily be seen that the boxers who contest tonight at the Airdome are in such condition as it takes years of experience to attain and that they are ready at the tap of the gong to wage the greatest contests of their lives.

Sudenberg is a slight favorite in the wagers, as he has made a great record for himself while in southern Nevada and because of the following

NYE COUNTY GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION

ORGANIZATION FORMED AT A PUBLIC MEETING IN AIR-
DOME LAST EVENING

An organization known as the Nye County Good Roads association was formed at a meeting held in the Airdome last evening. On account of the brevity of the notice the attendance was not large, but the gathering was a representative one. It was not known until after 8 o'clock that the meeting would be held because it was dependent upon the arrival from Salt Lake City of two auto loads of people from Big Pine and Los Angeles, who were to address the meeting.

However, there was a very interested audience assembled. W. H. Gotwaldt called the meeting to order and stated its purpose. United States Senator Pittman was chosen chairman and S. R. Moore secretary. The first address was made by Fred Eaton, former mayor of Los Angeles. The proclamation by Governor Boyle fixing May 1 as good roads day, was read. Commissioner Davis narrated the trip to Salt Lake and told what was accomplished. Editor White of Goldfield made brief remarks. Engineer Parker of Los Angeles was the next speaker. W. W. Pedder spoke on the necessity of improving the highway across Nye county.

Senator Pittman introduced a resolution favoring co-operation with the citizens of Esmeralda, White Pine, Owens valley and Los Angeles for the furtherance of the Midland route, urging the county commissioners to spend sufficient money on the road in Nye county to repair the same, to raise a fund to signboard the road and recommending that, as Los Angeles would be the chief beneficiary from this work, that city should contribute to its cost. The resolution was adopted.

Temporary organization of the Nye County Good Roads association was then formed with the following committee to arrange details: H. H. Bacon, Henry Schmidt and R. B. Davis. A resolution by Mr. Bacon was adopted. It pledged the association to co-operate with other places along the line of the Midland route in the matter of improving and advertising the highway.

M. J. CAHALAN, a former resident of Tonopah, was over from Goldfield yesterday.

ITALY SEEMS TO BE AWAITING VIENNA TO SEND ULTIMATUM BEFORE SEVERING NEUTRALITY AND DECLARING WAR

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, April 19.—The abandonment by the Germans of plans for a general offensive in France are inferred in Rome. The decision is indicated by official communications to the Italian cabinet and statements by German officials. They say that hope of penetrating further into French territory is put aside by the Germans. A Geneva dispatch gives the impression that the Austrians and Germans have decided to concentrate their energies on the eastern campaign. It is reported that a council of war, presided over by General Von Vindenburg, determined to transfer the Austrian heavy artillery now before Verdun to Poland, and send to Cracow the Hungarian cavalry now at the western front. Assertions made by Berlin that the Russians were halted in the Carpathians are offset by the claim of Petrograd that seventy miles of the front are in possession of Russians and that seventy thousand Austrians were taken prisoner in the last few weeks. Whether the negotiations between Rome and Vienna concerning Italy's demands for concessions have been broken off remains an official secret, but it appears that the tension is approaching the breaking point. It is suggested that the Italian foreign office is awaiting an ultimatum from Vienna on the subject of Italy's military preparations on the frontier as a pretext to sever the remaining ties barring an outbreak of hostilities. The British trawler Vanilla was sunk by a German torpedo today in the North sea.

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—A case of smallpox aboard the Chiyu Maru, from the orient, caused the vaccination of 236 during the trip. The release of the vessel by quarantine officials is delayed pending an examination of the passengers. A 10-year-old girl is the patient.

PEDESTRIANS IN IMMINENT DANGER

STREETS AND SIDEWALKS UN-
SAFE THROUGH CARELESS
DRIVING AND MENACES

Good luck, rather than prudence, is to be thanked for the comparative fewness of accidents on streets and sidewalks of Tonopah. Adequate precautions against them are not taken. The chief offenders are drivers of automobiles. Horns are rarely sounded at street intersections and when turning corners, while the speed that is usually maintained is much greater than that permitted in incorporated cities.

Another source of extreme danger is the use of sidewalks by children for roller skating, bicycle riding and coasting. The grades are so steep and the sidewalks so narrow that pedestrians, as well as the children themselves, frequently come to grief. It is not generally known if there are ordinances governing these matters and it is not fully established that there is authority for enforcing them, even if they do exist, but the general laws of the state cover these nuisances and menaces to life, and as such they should be suppressed by the officers of the law.

LAID TO REST

BILL FOR APPOINTIVE JUDGES IS KILLED

(By Associated Press.)

SACRAMENTO, April 19.—The movement for appointive judges was virtually killed when the senate decisively defeated Chandler's constitutional amendment declaring that judges of the supreme and appellate courts should be chosen by the governor. Twenty-seven votes were necessary. It received eighteen. There were eighteen noes, but Jones changed to no so he could make a motion tomorrow for reconsideration, making the final vote seventeen to nineteen. Luce led the opposition.

SUPREME COURT DECIDES AGAINST FRANK

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The supreme court has decided against Leo Frank in his habeas corpus proceedings. Justice Pitney delivered the opinion. He concluded by saying: "In all the proceedings in the courts of Georgia, the fullest right and opportunity to be heard according to the established modes of procedure have been accorded him."

Leo M. Frank's legal fight for life has taken a place among the celebrated murder cases of recent years. Seven times since his conviction in August, 1913, the lower and supreme courts of the state of Georgia refused to grant Frank a new trial or to set aside the verdict; three times the sentence of death was passed upon him and twice appeals were made to the United States supreme court, the first being unsuccessful and the second resulting in the decision today.

The murder of 14-year-old Mary Phagan, a factory employe of Atlanta, Ga., which at first appeared to be a crime of only local importance, eventually developed into a case of nation-wide interest. This was due in large part to the efforts of Frank and his friends to obtain for him a new trial or annulment of the verdict. Added interest in Atlanta was given the case because of its having been brought into a municipal political controversy, which involved attacks on that city's police and detective departments and wrangles among factions in the city administration.

Soon after the trial ended, the case came in for agitation which spread all over the country.

Mary Phagan was murdered April 26, 1913, on a southern holiday in observance of confederate memorial day. Shortly after noon of that day she was seen to enter the pencil factory, in Atlanta, where she had been employed and where she went to obtain wages due her. Her body was found next morning in the basement of the factory, with a cord tied about the neck.

Leo M. Frank, a young Jew, a college graduate and married, whose home had been in Brooklyn, N. Y., was superintendent of the pencil factory.

(By Associated Press.)

MYTHICAL ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED BY SUNDAY

(By Associated Press.)

JUMBO EXTENSION IN THE HIGH GRADE

ENTIRE FACE SHOWS VELVET
AFTER DRIFT IS RUN FOR
135 FEET

(Special to the Bonanza.)

GOLDFIELD, April 19.—The $80 level of the Jumbo Extension shows splendid values this morning. The last round of holes left a six by six face carrying $319. The drift is now 135 feet and is all in high grade. A number of brokers visited the property today by special invitation and all are amazed and pleased at the showing. There is no further word regarding the litigation. The face of the drift is 600 feet from the east line of the Velvet claim.

Three days after the murder, Frank was arrested on suspicion and on May 8, Frank and a negro watchman at the factory, Newt Lee, were held by the coroner for the grand jury's action. Lee subsequently was released. Sixteen days later "Jim" Conley, a negro sweeper at the factory, made a confession to the police in which he accused Frank of having killed the Phagan girl, and declared he had helped dispose of the body. Conley, who was one of the chief witnesses for the state at Frank's trial, was convicted as an accessory after the murder in February, 1914, and sentenced to one year's imprisonment. He began his term last July.

Frank was placed on trial in superior court, July 28, 1913, Judge L. S. Roan presiding. Judge Roan died March 23, 1915, in New York. A verdict of guilty was returned August 25, Frank being sentenced to death.

Application was made December 19 to Judge Newman of the federal district court for northern Georgia, for a writ of habeas corpus, alleging Frank had been convicted without due process of law; that the trial court had lost jurisdiction over him during the trial because it was "dominated by a mob hostile to the prisoner," and that Frank had been absent from the court room when the verdict was returned. Two days later Judge Newman refused the writ of habeas corpus, holding that to grant it would mean that a federal court should review the action of the state courts in a manner not warranted by the law of the country, and that, too, after the supreme court of the United States had decided no federal question remained for consideration in the case. Judge Newman also refused to issue a certificate of "probable cause" for appeal to the supreme court, but it was issued by Justice Lamar December 28 and the case came to the supreme court for review of Judge Newman's action, argument being made last February.

Justices Holmes and Hughes dissented. Seemingly there is no other avenue to escape the death penalty open to Frank through the courts. The Georgia pardon officials are Frank's only hope.
